

FRC SHOOTNSHINECHICO

Talented 3 Year Old Gray AQHA Gelding

“Chico” is a big, correct gelding with an enormous heart who is incredibly athletic, quick footed and talented. He is very responsive to cues, can cover ground when asked and has a huge stop. Whether on the ranch or in the arena this extremely confident, versatile gelding could really shine in any discipline.

Feather River College 2017 ©Sarah Jessica Photography

About the Rider: Karin Hiltbrand

Karin is pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Equine and Ranch Management. She has fallen in love with reined cow horses and intends to work for a trainer. Karin appreciates all that she has learned through the program and the opportunities that have been presented, like the chance to intern with NRCHA trainer, Todd Crawford.

"Work harder than you think you did yesterday, and never forget to smile"

