“Frazier” is a four-year old gelding who was born, raised and trained at Feather River College. He is 15.2 hands tall, has great conformation and a solid build. Frazier is athletic, flashy and has the potential to do anything from the show pen to ranch work. He has been ridden in the mountains to gather cattle, on the trail, worked cows in the arena and used to run in horses from the pasture. Frazier is soft in your hands and willing to please.

About the Rider: Yvonne Huttman

This is Yvonne’s second year at FRC. After this semester, she plans to transfer to UNR to attend their Pre-Vet Program. Yvonne would like to become a vet technician for a large animal vet hospital as well as having a small private training and boarding facility in the future.

“My favorite memory at FRC is the day we go out and work the flag for the first time on the colts. It is always surprising to see what each colt can do when they work the flag for the first time.”
