Hobbit has a sturdy build and athletic frame. This solid gelding is happy riding around real slow or you can spark him up to get a job done with ease. He is easy going and happy to do what is needed and has a sweet personality. This versatile horse is great in the arena or outside dragging logs. Hobbit is a handy horse and should succeed in just about whatever you would like to do.

About the Rider: Hannah Gibbons

Hannah is a second year student who is graduating this Spring with an A.S. in Equine Studies in Horse Training. Hannah was raised in Alturas, CA on a cattle ranch run by her parents, Byron and Susan. After high school she moved to Idaho to work for a cowhorse trainer. After FRC, Hannah is planning to move back to Idaho and continue riding and learning as much as she can.
